

2018 Programme

Tuesday 9th January	Talk: Dr George Nash on The Tilley Project and beyond
Tuesday 13th February	AGM at 6.30pm followed by the postponed talk by Dr Zoltan Hamori of Jurassic Plants on "Some less known and unusual hardy edible ornamental trees and shrubs"
Tuesday 13th March	Talk: By Simon Lloyd, Chief Executive, on "The work of the Royal Forestry Society"
Tuesday 10th April	Talk: By Andrew Allott on "The History of Woodlands in the Marches"
Saturday 12th May 10.30 am	Visit: Pitchford Hall, Shrewsbury, the Tree house and nearby interesting trees.
Saturday 9th June	Visit: To Birmingham Institute of Forest Research (Bifor) Norbury, Near Market Drayton
Saturday 14th July	Visit: Spetchley Gardens, Worcestershire
Sunday 12th August	Visit: Tree collection at Cholmondeley Castle Gardens, Cheshire
Saturday 8th September	Visit: Oteley Gardens, Ellesmere
Saturday 13th October	Visit: The RFS's Leighton Redwood Grove and Ackers Arboretum, near Welshpool
Tuesday 13th November	Talk: By Tony Russel "Gardening with Trees in the 21st Century"
Tuesday 11th December	Talk: By John Tuer "Looking after your Garden Trees"